BAD DAD

Maltese actor and comedian Chris Dingli's international hit one-man comedy about parenthood, Bad Dad.

Bad Dad is a semi-autobiographical show that chronicles the trials and tribulations of becoming a first-time father. It is a gloriously funny, brutally honest account of Dingli's experience as a father during the first year of his daughter's life.

As one reviewer who gave the show 5 stars put it, "If you never wanted a child, go see this show. If you always wanted a child, go see this show. If you couldn't care less about children, go see this show – you will still walk out entertained!"

Described by The Times of Malta as "one of the most side-splittingly funny and entertaining performances I have seen in a long time", this Maltese export has received rave reviews everywhere including in London, when The Reviews Hub remarked that "even an anecdote about his daughter's vomit becomes both chucklesome and charming in equal measure."

Now how can you resist that?

Well-known in his native Malta, Dingli is an award-winning actor, writer and comedian who divides his time between Malta and London. His credits include Michael Bay's 13 Hours: The Secret Soldiers of Benghazi, Doctors on BBC 1, and I Was a Rat! with Birmingham Rep.

"Refreshing... perfectly balanced anecdotes... touching moments...
 Dingli is a master of the stage"

London Pub Theatres Reviews

"Bad Dad proved to be one of the most side-splittingly funny and entertaining performances I have seen in a long time... not to be missed"

Times of Malta

"Hilariously memorable... had everyone in stitches from the word go... it has been a while since I laughed so much during a theatre performance"

Sunday Times of Malta

"He has impeccable comedy timing, is brilliantly expressive...Dingli is fantastic at finding the funny within the mundane... Delivered spectacularly well"
